

RISE AS ONE

SPRING COST & LEVELS

Rise as One AAU teams are the most competitive teams at each age level. Our AAU Spring season will be a three-month program that starts at the beginning of March and ends the beginning of June. As you know, we at Rise as One are committed to bringing only the best AAU experience for every player in our program. To stay committed to these values that lie at the core of our organization.

RISE AS ONE (RED) $985

Our Red teams consist of the most competitive players for their age group; this is the highest level of amateur youth basketball. These teams are comprised of players and coaches who are capable of competing in front of college coaches and scouts at some of the most high-profile AAU events in the nation. Their tryout, selection, and training process are extremely competitive but rewarding. Practice will be 2:00hr-2:30hr practices 2 to 3 times a week. Uniform & other gear cost is separate.

RISE AS ONE (BLACK) $885

Rise as One black team are capable of competing at almost any competition level. The teams will compete against other teams of the same competition level in local AAU tournaments. They will follow the same training regimens as our Rise as One Red teams. Uniform & other gear cost is separate. Practice will be 1:30hr-2:00hr practices 2 time a week.

RISE AS ONE (GREY) $745

Rise as One Grey is the perfect choice for players who need to learn the game but are looking for a more competitive playing and training environment than the traditional recreational and youth leagues/ tournaments have to offer. Heavy emphasis being put on court awareness, fundamentals, and teamwork. Practice two day per week for an 1:30hr to 2:00hr. Uniform & other gear cost is separate.

